General Notes: Cause of Death - horses falling on him in mine pit.

Noted events in his life were:

- His obituary was published in 1952 in Tallegalla, Queensland, Australia. MR. H. EMBREY ROSEWOOD, Feb. 7. — Mr. Herbert Embrey, who died as a result of a mining accident at United Colliery No. 7, Tallegalla, recently, was a respected resident of Rosewood. Eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Embrey, of Kingston Street, Rosewood, the late Mr. Embrey was born at Tallegalla 48 years ago. He attended the Tallegalla State School and spent all his life in the Tallegalla district until he took up residence in Rosewood 10 years ago. In his younger days, the late Mr. Embrey was a keen follower of sport, particularly cricket. He was a member and steward of the Rosewood A. and H. Association. He had been employed in the mining industry around Rosewood for approximately 26 years, working at Roughrigg Colliery for 21 years and at Normanton and United Colliery No. 7. The funeral, which left the Rosewood Congregational Church on Friday afternoon for the Tallegalla Cemetery, was the largest in Rosewood's history. A cortege of cars nearly two miles long, which moved to the cemetery, was an indication of the high esteem in which the late Mr. Embrey was held. As a mark of respect to their late comrade, the miners of Rosewood marched for a distance of about half a mile in front of the hearse. The late Mr. Embrey is survived by his widow and daughter, Mrs. A. Koch, and three grandchildren. He also leaves his aged parents, three sisters. Mesdames H. Freese, N. Pockock, and G. Wyatte, and one brother, Mr. W. Embrey, all of Rosewood. Queensland Times (Ipswich, Qld. : 1909 - 1954) Sat 9 Feb 1952 Page 6.

Alleged Annoying Behaviour

Before the Acting Police Magistrate (Mr. Johnstone Smith) In the Ipswich Police Court yesterday morning, James Booth. Lowry Street, North Ipswich, appeared on remand on a charge that he had wilfully and indecently acted with intent to annoy Catherine Francisco Embrey.

Senior-Sergeant M. Laughren conducted the prosecution.

Mr. H. V. Gibbs appeared for defendant.

Plain-clothes Constable Albert Edward Hird, stationed at Ipswich, stated that in consequence of a complaint received from Mrs. Embrey, he, with Acting-Sergeant J. T. Mather and Constable S. Horrocks, had hidden in a shed at the rear of Mrs. Embrey's premises, Lowry Street, at 5.10 a.m. on April 7. Through holes in the wall of the shed, he saw defendant misconducting himself under his own house and endeavouring to attract Mrs. Embrey's attention. Later he was told, said witness, that defendant had been carrying on in this manner for several months.

Corroborative evidence was given by 'Acting-Sergeant Mather and Constable Horrocks.

Catherine Francisco Embrey, a married woman, residing on the corner of Pelican and Lowry Streets, gave evidence that she had been annoyed by the actions of defendant, who was her neighbour, for many months. It was usually between 6 a.m. and 6.30 that the objectionable behaviour occurred, she stated. "I was very annoyed with it," she said. "I thought the man was mad Defendant pleaded "Not Guilty," and reserved his defence. He was committed for trial at the next criminal sittings of the Ipswich Circuit Court, and bail was granted, defendant for £40, and another surety of £40, or two of £20.

none Help

Mrs. Eunice Smith, of Rosewood (first generation), Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman (second generation), born in the Goodna district and now resident at Rosewood; Mrs. Margaret Embrey (third generation), born at Rosewood, now living at Tallegalla; Mr. John Embrey (fourth generation), born at Tallegalla, now living at Rosewood North; and Janet Grace Embrey (fifth generation), born at Rosewood on August 15.

lives with her youngest daughter, Mrs. A. C. M. Imrie, at "Acmeri," Rosewood, is very well known and esteemed throughout the Rosewood district. In May next she will attain her 86th birthday. Born in Cambridgeshire (English) she came to Australia when four years of age, and practically all of her life has been spent around the Goodna, Redbank, and Rosewood districts. Her husband died many years ago. Of her family of 10, there are six living Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman (Rosewood), Mr. Fred Smith (Miriam Vale), Mr. Alfred Smith (Rosewood), Mr. E. Smith (Milton), Mrs. W. J. Freeman, and Mrs. A. C. M. Imrie (Rosewood). Her son Jack was killed at Mackay, and another son, George, died at Winton. Two of her children died in infancy. Mrs. Smith's eldest and youngest sons served with the A.I.F.

Her grandchildren number 34, great-grandchildren 54, and there is one great-great-gandchild: a total of 95 direct descendants now living.

The greater number of Mrs. Smith's descendants follow agricultural activities, and quite a number of the fertile little farms in the Rosewood district are the homes of her kinsfolk.

Confined now entirely to her room, this worthy lady is provided with every comfort and attention by members of her family, whose pleasure it is to strive to brighten her days.
