

WEDDING OF MISS CURRAN

Archbishop of Cardiff Officiates

By OUR WOMAN CORRESPONDENT

The Archbishop of Cardiff (Dr. Mostyn) officiated at the wedding at St. David's Cathedral, Cardiff, on Wednesday of Dr. Robert Emmett Davitt, son of the late Mr. Michael Davitt and of Mrs. Davitt, of 21, Pembroke Park, Dublin, and 22, Merrien-square, Dublin, and Miss

Mr. and Mrs. Sa
Mr. Alan. Rac
Miss Betty Ric
Richards.
Mr. Percy Sw
Miss Margare
Jerome Twomey
Mr. and Mrs. B
Father Leo W
Mr. Joseph Wolf
Mrs. Williams,
Rev. Father W
Photograph

PAS

The Rev. J
Kenfig Hill C
Pryce Jones
Jones, of W
was married a terian Church, shire), to Mis
daughter of M
of Merfryn, Pe
The Rev.
officiated.
The bride w
Jones (sister),

Councillor Edward Curran
the late Mrs. Curran, of 46, place, Cardiff, and of North Porthcawl.

Dr. Davitt represents Meath
Dail. His father, the late Mr.
Davitt, was a well-known Irish po and writer, and with Parnell
the Irish Land League.

Miss Curran is a member of on leading Roman Catholic fami
Cardiff.

The wedding ceremony was f
by Nuptial Mass, celebrated by Leo Wolfe. The solo in the Ma sung by the bridegroom's brother Cahir Davitt.

The bride wore a gown of ducherne satin with a gathered r and high waist. A triangular.

SISTERS AS BRIDESMAID

Attending her were the Misses F and Winifred Curran, her two young sisters, who were in gowns of hyd blue lace, the pattern outlined in thread and trimmed with mauve pink ribbons and roses. Their Varden hats of matching blue lace underlined with mauve and pink and they carried bouquets of pink and lilies of the valley.

Mr. G. McLoughlin (Dublin) was best man.

A reception was held in the garden. Councillor Curran's home in Park. His second daughter, Miss Curran, acted as hostess for her and received the guests wearing piece ensemble of chocolate-ripple crêpe, the bodice of the being entirely of beige lace outlined gold beads. The short coat, on she wore a spray of orchids, had top sleeves. Her hat was of mauve brown velvet with the new veiled

HONEYMOON IN PARIS

The Archbishop of Cardiff pr
the health of the bride and bride
He was felicitated by Councillor on attaining his jubilee.

The bridegroom's mother was to be present owing to illness.

Dr. and Mrs. Davitt left later fo don and Paris. To travel the brid a gown of jersanca wool in pale sl with nigger cire satin at the ba covering the buttons and a brow with a two-skin café fox collar. I was a brown tricorné felt.

The bride's gown, travelling en the bridesmaids' gowns, the sister's ensemble, and many of t
the guests were designed and supp
J. Potter Gilmore, Ltd., 24, St. street, Cardiff.

The whole of the catering a

Continued.

The following is a list of the guests.
Mr. J. Allies.
Mr. Ian Bloomer, Mr. A. L. Butler.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Curran, Mr. and Eugene Curran, Mr. Basil Curran.
Charlie Curran, Miss Kathleen Curran.
Edward Curran, Mr. Paul Curran.
Bernard Curran, Miss Madge Curran.
Frances Curran, Miss Winifred Sergt. Dan Collins and Mrs. Collins, the Father Conway, Miss Becky Cravos.
Major Llew. David and Mrs. Llew.
Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Donovan, Judge
Davitt and Mrs. Cahir Davitt, Miss Dillon.
Dr. England.
Mr. Denis Feighery.
Canon Greishaber.
Canon D. J. Hannon, Miss Marie Hill.
Peggy Harrison, Mrs. Hawkins, M.
Herlihy.
Mgr. Provost Irvine, V.G.
Father James, Sir Thomas G.
K.B.E., and Lady Jones, Mr. and Mrs.
Jenkins.
Mr. and Mrs. Kitson, Mr. and Mrs.
Kiernan, Mr. Denis Kennedy.
Dr. and Mrs. Naunton Lewis.
The Archbishop of Cardiff, Mr.
Mayer, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Martin.
Molony, Miss Marsden, Mr. James Mc
lin, Dr. McArthur.

F MISS MAR

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Polglase, Miss Po
Mr. Alan Race, Miss Marjorie B
Miss Betty Richards, Mr. and Mrs
Richards.

Mr. Percy Swann.

Miss Margaret Thomas, Mr. an Jerome Twomey, Alderman F. H. T
Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Turnbull.

Father Leo Wolfe, Miss Kathleen
Mr. Joseph Wolfe, Capt. J. J. Willia
Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Wall

DR. R. E. DAVITT, of Dublin, and Miss Mary Curran, daughter of Councillor Edward Curran, of Cardiff, after their wedding at St. David's Cathedral, Cardiff, yesterday.

