Noted events in his life were:

- His obituary was published in 1931 in Murrumburrah, NSW, Australia. The late Mr. J. J. Searle, whose death occurred on 3rd Inst., was a link with the pioneer days of this country. His father was the first man to travel overland from Sydney to Melbourne, accomplishing the journey with four packed bullocks.

Our late friend, who was born in Melbourne, lived for many years at Quorn, S.A. In 1909 he came over to N.S.W. and took up share-farming on Garangula Station. Two years later he came to Hillview, Harden, to live, where he resided until his death.

During the last 20 years he made many friends, while retaining happy relationships with a number of district residents, who he knew in S.A. He was a man of sterling christian character and although of a quiet nature, was an energetic worker of the Methodist Church, filling the office of local Preacher with much acceptance,

Mr. Searle was pre-deceased by his wife on November 24th, 1928. He has left three sons, Alfred, of Nedlands, W.A., George E., of Quorn S.A., Arthur A. of Harden and two daughters; Mrs. W. H. Salmon, of Quorn, S.A., and Mrs. Liebich, of Parramatta.

A Memorial Service was conducted in the Methodist Church on Sunday last. Rev. Mr. Taylor took, as the text of the address, the words, "Mark the perfect man and behold the upright, for the end of that man is peace." He stressed that the elements of highest christian character were illustrated in the life, conduct, and service of the departed. His life was an example that all might follow, and his fearless hope in the valley, of the shadow of death, was an inspiration to all who knew him. Truly the end of that man was peace.

Rev. R. E..S, Taylor officiated at the funeral on Thursday last. Many friends attended the services in the home, and at the graveside, to pay their last tribute of respect and esteem.

VISNES, Gladys Mary (Age 98) May 29, 1921 - March 23, 2020 Gladys Mary Visnes died March 23, 2020 in Coeur d'Alene with loved ones by her side. She was 98 years old, almost 99. Each year the day after her birthday, May 29, she would round her age to the next year as she was proud to lead a long, full life. The daughter of Herbert and Catherine Loughland, she grew up with her sister, Betty, in Butte, Montana where she met and married Norman Visnes in May of 1943. Together they lived in Butte and Radersburg, MT, Kellogg, Wallace, and Silverton, Idaho. Later, moving to Tucson, AZ and Summit, NJ with Norm's ASARCO career. They traveled the world extensively before retiring to Coeur d'Alene. Gladys was a natural athlete in a time when there were few opportunities for women. She was an avid golfer, even golfing with family on her 80th birthday. She cared for others, loved to cook and was known for her special recipes. Gladys is survived by two daughters and sons in law, Kristi and Rich Hatrock of Coeur d'Alene and Lynn and Jim Mead of New Fairfield, CT. Her joy was time spent with family including grandchildren Brett, Holly, Eric, Kyle and their four spouses plus nine great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren. She was a caring, loving woman who made a difference in the world. We are thankful for her almost 99 years of a strong, athletic, and fun filled legacy. We will celebrate her spirit that lives on.
